

Introducing the sleek, light and rugged T1190.

At only 15mm thin and a mere 2.3lbs, the xTablet T1190 may be small in stature but is big on features. Built to MobileDemand's rugged standards, this sunlight viewable wonder carries an IP65 rating for dust and water so come rain or shine, weather will never slow you down. When equipped with an optional barcode scanner or 3-in-1 point of sale module kit, the T1190 will shine in industries that rely on mobility and customer interactions, including retail, restaurant, and healthcare.
